ALVIN K. HELLERSTEIN, U.S.D.J.:

Defendant Joel Cabrera seeks bail in light of the spread of COVID-19. Defendant is uniquely at risk for severe complications from COVID-19 because of obesity and obesity-related respiratory problems. Notwithstanding the serious nature of Defendant's alleged conduct and the fact that he previously violated conditions of his release, I find that he does not pose a danger of flight and that he will not pose a danger to the community.

For these reasons, Defendant's application for bail is granted. I impose all of the conditions previously imposed, see ECF No. 4, with the following modifications:

- Defendant is directed to self-quarantine in his mother's home, located at for 14 days following his release. During this time, Defendant shall be subject to monitoring at the following telephone number:
- On the tenth day of such self-quarantine, Defendant shall call Pretrial Services to report his condition and to schedule an appointment for the placement of location-monitoring equipment.

I admonish Defendant that any violation of the conditions of bail will be viewed harshly by the Court.

SO ORDERED.

April 3, 2020 New York, New York
